EUROPE.

PARIS, Feb. 25.—Frank Byrne, states that he has had no political connection with Carey since 1869.

MARSEILLES, Feb. 25.—Pere Hyacynthe lectured to 300 persons tonight. There was a great uproar, Catholics hissing and insulting him.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—The Golos, having been warned the third time, has been suspended six months. On its reappearance it will be subject to a clause of one of the temporary press regulations. In 1882 the Golos was suppressed because of its mischievous tone in discussing state institutions and describing the intentions of the government regarding reforms which have taken place during the last quarter of a century.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—It is stated that letters have been received by the authorities conveying a threat to blow up the Kremlin at Moscow, where the czar is to be crowned. Search was made, but nothing indicating preparations for the destruction of the palace was revealed. Close watch is kept, and the public are not allowed to enter the buildings.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—An ukase has been published appointing a commission to examine and amend the laws relating to Jews, which will afterwards be submitted to the legislative department for examination.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Hartington will decline to give Northcote a day for discussion of the motive of asking for a committee to inquire into the "Kilmainham treaty," on the ground that the subject has been already discussed. It is said the French authorities decline to assist the English police who have gone to France to track persons implicated in the Phœnix park murders. Police have guarded the house of Forster since his speech attacking Parnell.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Gladstone will arrive in London Thursday. The police on Saturday renewed their precautions for his safety. Several additional suspected persons arrived in this city last week. Important information regarding their movements has been received.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Gen. MacAdaras telegraphed Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, as follows: "I am willing to submit to the most rigid scrutiny of my actions."

DUBLIN, Feb. 25.—Harrington, secretary of the organizing committee of the land league, now in jail for using intimidating language, was elected without opposition to the seat in commons for Westmeath.

SKIBBEREEN, Feb. 25.—A parcel addressed to Earl Spencer and containing several ounces of dynamite with a fuse attached, was deposited in Bally dehod post-office to-day.

DUBLIN, Feb. 25.—Curran, divisional magistrate, has opened further private inquiry at the castle into the murder conspiracy.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 25.—An explosion of dynamite yesterday occurred in the open air in the village of Ganshorten. One of the men wounded has since died. The prisoners belonged to a committee of anarchists. They were experimenting with a new kind of fireworks when the explosion accidentally occurred.

MADRID, Feb. 25.—A society to destroy the rights of property and exterminate bourgeoise land-owners has been discovered in Andalusia. The government has resolved to suppress the societies. They number 1000 members, and include persons of social standing.

MADRID, Feb. 25.—Owing to disclosures, 136 socialists have been arrested in Andalusia. Special judges were appointed to make an investigation. Many arrests are made daily.

CRACOW, Feb. .25.—The arrest of a number of students of the university, charged with socialistic intrigues, causes a great sensation.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 25.—Prussian officials are enforcing the new regulations in Schleswig Holstein with moderation.

PARIS, Feb. 25.—The report of Gen. Thiebaudin, minister of war, in justification of the retirement of Duc D'Charters and Duc D'Aumale, says public opinion demanded the adopted measure of placing these princes on the retired list. The public has become alive to the inconvenience of the presence in the army of officers belonging to some reigning families. The great principles of subordination and discipline might be weakened thereby.

Paris conservative republican papers deplore the fact that the government is forced to place princes on the retired list of the army, and demand a revision of the laws of 1834 that these officers be reinstated.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 26.—It is reported that anarchist documents seized here show a plot has been organized to murder the Czar of Russia on the occasion of his coronation.

The house of the Anarchist here who entertained Louise Michel when in Brussels recently, was searched by the police to day, who seized three trunks. A majority of the documents contained therein were written in Russian and Italian, and referred to an international plot. It is rumored that disclosures were made in connection with the dynamite explosion at Ganshorten. These papers will lead to the arrest of Louise Michel and several of her colleagues. The man who was not wounded by the explosion at Cyrocle is a weaver from Lyons. It is said the French Government demand his extradition.

LONDON, Feb. 24—In a speech to-day Parnell said Foster had unfairly singled out Sheridan, as mentioned in the Kilmainham treaty negotiation. Why did he suppress the names of Davitt, Egan and Boynton, also mentioned as likely to endeavor to prevent outrages in Ireland.

Parnell said he had been challenged to defend himself, but had nothing to defend himself from. He occupied a better position in the eyes of the Irish people than did Forster in England. Forster's unfairness was shocking. Parnell analyzed the evidence of Carey, which he said was not a statement of facts, but belief and hearsay. It had been already proved, as regards Mrs. Byrne's evidence in reference to the source of the "murder fund," it rested upon the fact that some men while in prison, received checks from the sustentation fund of the league. Such aid had been given to thousands of prisoners. Forster's animus was due from the fact that he attempted to obtain a promise from him (Parnell), but failed to do so and lost his office. As proof that the prisoners charged with the Phœnix park murders were not members of the land league, Parnell pointed out that one of them returned a check sent from the sustentation fund, saying he had nothing to do with the league. Concluding, Parnell declared that the present officials in Ireland are manifestly unfit to administer the Crime's act. Forster had sought to return to his congenial work. He was hopeful Ireland would weather this as she had weathered other formidable oppressions. Parnell spoke for thirty five minutes.

Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, vindicated the policy of the government of Ireland. The only policy for Ireland was to say exactly what the government meant to do, and then do it. He regretted that Parnell had not made his position clearer.

LONDON, Feb. 25—The Times says Parnell's speech will be read with the profound repugnance it excited in the house. His coolness maintained, with entire success, does not imply courage so much as shamelessness. The utter inadequacy of his evasive quibbles to dispose of the charge built upon very broad induction, may account for his labored explanation of trifles and the resort to illtimed recrimination which marked the speech. The house waited patiently for frank treatment of the question, which never came. The chilling reception of his callous triviality was only accentuated by the mechanical cheers of the Irish members.

It is understood that Parnell is determined to press his amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne arraigning the executive in Ireland for its administration of the Crimes' act.

The Daily News says suspicion against the land league and some of its officials is increased by the absence of any defense. Parnell said nothing to disprove the complicity in the outrage of some officials with whom he had acted. It would have been well had Parnell shown the house that he discouraged the incendiary appeals constantly printed in the Irish World.

DUBLIN, Feb. 25—Carey, the informer, denies that he wrote a letter of sympathy to Miss Burke after the murder of her brother.

Startling revelations regarding the murder conspiracy will be published in a few days. Ten men are to be arrested in the Dublin district and provinces, and the whole organization will be crushed. The police are getting at the bottom of most of the agrarian murders. It will be proved that all the murders were arranged by one organization. Secret inquiry at the castle will be resumed, owing to many witnesses coming forward. Six prisoners just committed for trial are willing to become informers.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, Feb. 25—John Morley, liberal, defeated Gainsford Bruce, conservative, in the parliamentary election. Morley received, 9,443 votes; Bruce, 7,187.

DUBLIN, Feb. 26.—If the Grand Jury of Waterford find a true bill against Rigan, member of Parliament for this county, Kavenon, charged with using seditious language, will apply for a change of venue.

The police have obtained information that the names of six men have already been enrolled to fill gaps in the ranks of the Irish Invincibles, made by the arrest of its members for murder in Dublin.

The Duke of Cambridge, commander of the British army, has written the commander of the troops in Ireland, highly praising the men for their good conduct, and the way with which they performed difficult orders.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—Ribot, and ten other republican deputies, have given notice that they will introduce a bill providing that the non-activity of officers under the law of 1834 can be decreed only after resort in favor thereof by a court martial, and the officer, Robau, has vacated his command. In a farewell order the colonel of Chasseurs enjoined the officers and men to support his successor, and prove that by zeal, devotion and obedience to the laws the lessons he had taught them had been inspired by a sense of honor and love of country.

MADRID, Feb. 26.—Accounts from Andalusia show that the doings of the Socialistic societies recently discovered there resemble the worst crimes committed in Ireland. The societies are particularly violent against the landlords.

A MELANCHOLY EXHIBIT.

As Mr. Beaven laid down his portfolio and skipped off the treasury benches, he exclaimed "I am gratified to be able to say that our successors will find the affairs of the government in a satisfactory state." The official financial statement which reached the house yesterday will convey to the mind of the reader exactly what Mr. Beaven conceives to be "satisfactory." It is shown that on the 31st December the Dominion subsidy to the 30th June had been drawn in advance and expended; that there was an overdraft of $63,227 96 at the bank; that there were claims amounting to more than $64,000 unpaid and that there was a deficit for the year of $76,285 08. If this condition can with truth be termed "satisfactory," it is difficult to conceive a condition of things that could be called unsatisfactory. Among the liabilities are many unpaid accounts which the ex-premier, with the extraordinary perversity which has ever characterized him refused or neglected to discharge. Chief among these claims looms up the enormous demand of Mr. DeCosmos for salary, etc., as special agent to London—$5773 93! This claim is in addition to the sum of $5500 already paid Mr. DeCosmos, which, in itself has always been deemed a large sum to pay for a mission which produced only disaster. Those who have imagined that Mr. DeCosmos worked for "glory," deceived themselves. As we shall have something more to say on the subject of finance in a day or two we content ourselves with recommending the examination of the statement to our readers. It will well repay the trouble. The government have gone the right way to work. Mr. Beaven always shouldered the sin of his over-expenditure in 1874 and 1875 upon the Elliott government, which did not have an existence until 1876. His present successors in the preparation of the statement are determined that he shall not take a similar advantage of them.

THE HOMESTEAD ACT.

The homestead amendment act which is now before the house contains an important alteration in the interests of the commercial community and we hope to see it (even if in an amended form) become law. Under the present law every person is entitled to claim a homestead against an execution creditor to the amount of $500 on whatever goods and chattels the debtor pleases. It is not proposed to alsor this privilege, but to compel the debtor to specify by a registration with the government agent the particular property he desires to have exempted. Thus a farmer can specify cattle and implements of husbandry; a trader, a certain class of goods in store; a private individual his household furniture. If the debtor does not file such particulars with the proper officer his exemption will be limited to $150 in household furniture and wearing apparel. The object intended to be attained is to enable creditors to ascertain for themselves on what special property the debtor desires the $500 homestead to attach. At present a creditor is at a great disadvantage. He desires to compel a reluctant debtor to pay a just debt. The sheriff proceeds in due course and makes a levy and is met by claim for homestead. The debtor never claims homestead until the sheriff has seized, and his claim is always the exact property seized. The result is the creditor has, in addition to the nonpayment of his debt, to pay the sheriff the costs of a futile levy. The amendment proposed will save the creditor from these costs and will enable the question of credit to be placed on a firmer basis than it is at the present time, whilst the debtor can still claim his homestead to the extent of $500 by complying with the requirements of the act.

TORONTO, Feb. 22—Americans here assign as a reason why they are not celebrating Washington's birthday that most of them have had serious family affliction during the past year.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22—The Marquis of Lorne presided at a meeting of the artillery association, and promised to assist to send a team to Shoeburyness, England.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 7—A shocking affray occurred at a dance held at a place called Marshalitown, five miles from Digby. The row started in the house between deceased, James Worthylake, and Denis Hutchinson. There was a bad feeling between them. Hutchinson's niece had had an illegitimate child, of which Worthylake was the reputed father, and on account of which he had been compelled by legal process to pay $340. On Worthylake coming into the house, Hutchinson followed and endeavored to strike him. Worthylake drew a revolver and said: "Keep off or I'll shoot." Hutchinson closed on him, whereupon Worthylake discharged the revolver, the ball entering Hutchinson's breast, going through the second rib. They then clenched and fell, Worthylake being underneath. Immediately afterwards the pistol was discharged again, the ball entering the left side of Worthylake's head and being buried in the brain. He immediately expired Hutchinson is not expected to recover. Worthylake was a sailor and 22 years of age. Hutchinson is a farmer 30 years of age. He is married and has two or three children.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—Hon. Sackville West and daughter, and a daughter of Sherman, have arrived and are guests of the Marquis of Lorne at Rideau Hall.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 24.—Excitement in pugilistic circles over the respective merits of Sullivan, Slade, Mace, and other sluggers, has been at fever heat for several days, threatening on several occasions scenes of violence and bloodshed. R. K. Fox is here and says positively a match between Slade and Sullivan will take place within six months, probably in Louisiana or Mississippi.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 24.—Jerome, a negro, became enamored of the beauty of Mrs. Wm. Terrill, a well known citizen. When Mr. and Mrs. Terrill were asleep the negro got into the house, crept into bed with them with a knife and revolver in his hands. He awoke Mrs. Terrill and told her he would kill her husband if she waked him, and made a base proposal to her. She awoke her husband, whereupon a fearful struggle took place. He succeeded in disarming the negro, who in the course of the melee fatally wounded Terrill's son, 10 years of age. The negro was finally overpowered and locked up. It is believed he will be lynched.

CAIRO, Ills., Feb. 24.—Information was received here this evening of a distressing accident last night, on the Mississippi river, about 200 miles below this city. J. S. Rhodes, his wife and three children, a widow lady and two men whose names are unknowa, were crossing the river through the heavy ice, from Kentucky to Wolfe, when their skiff capsized and the entire party was drowned.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 24.—Suit was begun to-day against the Augustinian society of the Roman Catholic trust institution. Depositors were notified that there was no ready money. The indebtedness is placed at half a million to depositors, mostly female operatives.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Last night two well known thieves, Eddie Preston and Jack Floherty, went to Joliet, robbed a store of $35,000 worth of silks and checked the trunks containing them for Chicago. The baggageman in handling them, felt the bolts of silk jolt, and supposed they were dead bodies. They telegraphed to Chicago, and on arrival here this morning, the thieves were arrested and returned to Joliet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Sara Bernhardt's husband has written to the Gaulois that he will leave the theatre for the army. He says "France, which treats my wife as a spoiled child, will, I hope, have room for me under the shadow of her flag. I renounce my idea of being an actor, and this very day enlist in the foreign legion, and solicit the favor of grand naturalization."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The department of state has received application from the British government for the extradition of J. P. Sheridan, suspected of complicity in the Phœnix Park murder case.

EAST TAWAS, Mich., Feb. 25.—A rumor from a logging camp says two men got into a dispute over a trial as to whose team could haul the heaviest load. After the trial the one whose team was victorious walked into his cabin and sat down. The defeated one came behind and with one blow of an axe severed the head from the body. The head rolled to the floor, the eyes winked several times and the mouth opened. Members of the camp took the murderer, placed a logging chain around his neck, and hung him. They placed a guard around the body to await the arrival of the sheriff. Men came from a neighboring camp to take the corpse down, when a general fight ensued, in which seven men were killed.

THE MARQUIS OF LORNE.

An American Opinion of our Governor General.

A writer of the Brooklyn Eagle says:—I never saw a more striking instance of the utter failure of caricatures to convey any real idea of their subjects than in the case of the Marquis of Lorne. If the caricatures have shown anything, and have given any idea of the husband of Princess Louise, it was certainly that of a weak and puny man, with spindle legs, and effeminate face, and a generally henpecked appearance. This has been done so often, and he is so thoroughly grounded in the mind of most Americans as a mild young man, quite content to play second fiddle to the Queen's daughter, that nobody was prepared for the man he really is. When he was pointed out to me I could scarcely believe that it was he. The Marquis is above the average height, with a powerful and expressive face, highly intelligent eyes, and the figure of an athlete. He steps like a man, talks with decision and energy, and insists on being treated with a distinction that is due the son of the Duke of Argyle, the son-in-law of the Queen, and the reigning Governor-General of a powerful British province. I beg to suspect that the Princess Louise does not twist his Nibs around her finger quite as much as is reported. He does not impress one as a man that can easily be twisted.

Loss of Another Atlantic Steamer.

A dispatch dated New York, Feb. 25th states that the steamer Republic from Liverpool on Feb. 16th met the steamer Glamorgan, Capt. Court, from Liverpool for Boston in a wrecked condition, in lat. 50° 31 min. and longitude 20° 10 min.

The following were lost: Capt. Court, A. P. Rolland, second officer; D. Williams, and J. Jerold, seaman; John Barrett, second steward; Handy Cullen, passenger, and an unknown man, a stowaway. On Wednesday morning following the departure of the Glamorgan tremendous seas struck her, carrying away her foremast, all her ventilators, fore and main winches and pipes, bridges and rails and flooding all below decks. Friday, Saturday and Sunday succeeding, the wind and sea increased its fury and the vessel hove to. On Monday the weather moderated but on Tuesday the storm returned with increased violence. The Courtley chief engineer, states that the vessel was swept by seas and everything smashed including the steering gear. The ship also opened fore and aft, and the water pouring in stopped the engines and left the vessel helpless. Thursday the weather moderated and they did the best they could to keep the water out and about noon the Republic bore down and rescued 53 passengers and the remaining officers and crew. The captain and others who were lost were swept away by the awful sea that wrecked the vessel on Wednesday. A passenger named Cullen said he was wanted by the British government to identity the Phœnix Park assassins. Forester is the name of a Republic seaman who was lost in launching the life boat.

A Boston despatch dated Feb. 20th states that the cargo of the lost steamer was valued at about $200,000, on which the insurance in local offices at Boston, including foreign agencies, is estimated here at $100,000.

BEARING CENTRAL PACIFIC STOCK.

What the Quidnuncs Say About It.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—A Wall street paper of bear proclivities says a good many people think Central Pacific stock paying 6 per cent. is pretty low at 80 cents. We doubt if this be the case. On the contrary, it is more than likely to go a great deal lower. The Central Pacific people in building the Southern Pacific have invested, so we are told, at least $100,000,000, and the property is practically dead.. The only chance of saving it is in building up the country by inducing immigration, and this they are about to do by carrying passengers from New York via New Orleans for $20. Of course the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific will go to the dogs, but the only hope of getting $100,000,000 out of the Southern Pacific is in the new scheme of populating the Pacific Slope. We are told that the Central Pacific people are resolved upon this scheme, and will let the government take back its property for the amount of the mortgage, and that the pro rata would not have been made with the Union Pacific last winter were it not that the Central Pacific people wanted a little more time to get out of their stock. Under these circumstances we would not advise the purchase of Pacific stock. The "Stockholder" says of the Union Pacific: The street generally is not favorably impressed with the report of the government directors so far as that document has been made public, and as a result of its conclusions, it is disposed rather to sell stock short than to buy it for a possible rally. Still, strong people are free buyers. The point given out is that the stock will again sell at par within thirty days.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

FOURTH PARLIAMENT.

FIRST SESSION.

TUESDAY, February 27.

Mr. Speaker took the chair at 2 m.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Watson.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Dunsmuir presented a petition from the British Columbia Board of Trade.

Read and received and ordered printed.

PRIVILEGE.

Mr. T. Davie referred to the speech at the opening of the house stated that therein was a statement to the effect that Australian and other laws on the Chinese question would be laid before the house. He could not find any of those promised acts and he would ask the leader of the opposition to furnish those documents to the clerk so that they might be copied for information of members.

Mr. Beaven stated that his colleague was out of order, but certainly he would not supply his own private papers for the information of the government.

Mr. Wilson asked if those papers had been in the hands of the government printer.

Mr. T. Davie replied in the affirmative.

Hon. Mr. Smithe asked by what right Mr. Beaven referred to private papers in the governor's speech? It was perfectly right for the enquiry to be made on a question of privilege as to what had become of these papers and it ought to be discussed.

Mr. Allen on a question of privilege complained of the Standard's report of Monday's proceedings, where the word "Beaven" occurred it was printed "government." The answer to his question was correctly reported in The Colonist. If he should be misreported again he would bring the matter before the house in a more stringent manner.

Mr. Beaven also rose to a question of privilege and complained of an official document which misrepresented him with regard to the Murchison claim. This instead of being one of the many unsettled claims of the late government was one of the unsettled claims of the Elliott government.

Hon. Mr. Smithe—No, no, it is not an unsettled claim of the Elliott government. He then proceeded to explain the claim in question and the assertion was made that no effort had been made to settle it by the late government.

COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Davie presented a report from private bills committee stating that Messrs. Dunsmuir & Diggle had complied with the standing orders of the house in their railway bill

Report received and adopted. Leave granted. Bill read a first time and referred to committee.

QUESTIONS PUT BY MEMBERS.

Mr. John asked the hon. C. C. of L. and W. the following question:

Is it the intention of the government to continue the construction of the graving dock by day-work.

Hon. Mr. Smithe in reply referred the hon. member to his answer on the same question which had been given on Monday.

SECOND READINGS.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second reading of bill to remove disqualification of Justices of Peace and in so doing he remarked that the bill in question merely sought to remove the disqualification which attached to justices of the peace by being ratepayers within their jurisdiction.

Moved into committee of whole. Mr. Duck in the chair.

The two clauses of the bill passed without amendment.

Report received and adopted. Third reading Wednesday.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second reading of Provincial officers appointment bill, which he said was of almost similar character to the last one. The clauses were explained.

Mr. Beaven expected that the hon. attorney general would have referred to the decision of the judges bearing on the bill in question. He was of opinion that all provincial appointments had been properly made.

Hon. Mr. Drake said it was a matter of regret that the leader of the opposition had not made himself better acquainted with the judgment in question. It seems to be constitutional for that hon. gentleman to speak of little things and it seemed that he could not rise above them. The time of the house should not be occupied in such a manner.

Bill in committee, Mr. Wilson in the chair.

Mr. Beaven remarked that a copy of the judgment in question had been delivered by him to the present provincial secretary and he hoped that gentleman was taking good care of it.

Hon. Mr. Robson replied that the document was safe in his office and it was all the more valuable because of the fifty copies paid for by the people 49 had been destroyed by the late government. (Laughter.)

Mr. T. Davie wished to offer an amendment to clause 3 as follows:

This act shall not apply to or effect any legal proceedings, suits or actions which are now pending, or any question or questions arising therein. Legal members of the house were aware that a suit was pending in which the right of the attorney general to hold the office of C. C. of L. and W. was disputed.

Mr. Semlin did not see why this amendment should be passed to take advantage of a technicality. The object of the bill seemed to be to avoid advantage being taken of such technicalities.

Committee rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again, so as to enable members to make themselves better acquainted with the amendment of Mr. T. Davie.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

on married woman's property amendment bill, Mr. Grant in the chair.

Mr. Armstrong contended that the bill tended to bring about disputes in the domestic circle. He moved that the committee rise.

On the motion being put to a vote it was negatived.

Mr. T. Davie instanced more reasons why the bill should be passed.

Considerable discussion took place on the first clause of the bill for and against in which several members took part. It was eventually passed. The other sections and subsections with slight amendments were also passed and the preamble of the English Act substituted for the one at the commencement of the bill.

Bill reported complete with amendments. Report to be considered Wednesday.

COAL MINES REGULATION.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Davie this bill was recommitted (Mr. Semlin in the chair) for the purpose of reconsidering an amendment, which having been done the bill was reported.

Hon. Mr. Davie drew attention to the fact that the words "of the age of 12" had been struck out in committee on Tuesday and moved the recommittal of the bill.

Mr Dunsmuir said that as long as members interfered with matters of which they knew nothing there would be valuable time lost. (Hear and laughter.)

The report was finally ordered to be reconsidered to morrow.

House adjourned till Wednesday at 2 p. m.

THE UNKNOWN LAND.

The Memorial of the Board of Trade On the Kootenay Improvement Scheme.

To the honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia:

The petition of the British Columbia Board of Trade humbly sheweth—That the board of trade having had under consideration the projected scheme of A. J. Ainsworth and others, as explained by Captain Blasdell personally, which scheme the board understands to embrace the opening up and working of certain mineral claims on Kootenay lake in this province in connection therewith; and in order to draw supplies from the markets of this province, and transport the product of said mineral claims to the seaboard by connecting with the Canadian Pacific railroad at or near Eagle pass; the immediate construction of a wagon road from Shuswap lake by way of the said pass to Columbia river; building and maintaining a line of steamers on that river to connect said wagon road with a railroad to be constructed to Kootenay lake; and there connecting with another line of steamers to the locality of said mining claims, and (without having had an opportunity of examining the bill which is to be introduced to the house) beg respectfully to represent that in the opinion of the members of this board the project is worthy of the favorable consideration of your honorable house for the following reasons:

1. That it will be the means of developing a section of this province which at present is of little or no value.

2. That in order to secure the trade of that section to British Columbia, it is very desirable to take advantage of the opportunity of connecting it with the present settled and producing portions of the country, and thus initiate a connection with the valuable mines about to be opened out.

3. That the opening of these mines will attract a large mining population to this province which would materially add to the revenue; furnish a market for the productions of the interior; and by affording prompt facilities of communication be the means of securing an important branch of trade to British Columbia which might otherwise find an outlet through the United States.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound will ever pray, etc.

Signed on behalf of the British Columbia Board of Trade.

R. P. RITHET, President.

ROBERT WARD, Acting Secretary.

(Before Hon. A. E. Pemberton.)

TUESDAY, Feb. 27, 1883.

There was one man fined for being drunk and disorderly.

The case of Henry Arlington, alias Patsey, charged with being disguised in an alley-way was continued.

Supt. O'Connor gave additional evidence to the effect that the alleyway was much frequented by the Chinese, and that there had been several robberies and two murders in the district within a comparatively short time.

Officer Lindsay re-called stated that the the spot where Mr. McCormack found the sand-bag was where the arrest was made.

Chas. McCormack stated he found the sand-bag on Sunday at 12.30 o'clock.

At the request of Supt. O'Connor the case was adjourned for one day.

Comments on the Tacoma Investigation.

Public sentiment seems divided in relation to the facts brought only by investigation into the loss of the Tacoma. The testimony so far adduced appears to conflict in some of the most essential points. This is especially the case in regard to the course sailed by the vessel for some hours prior to stranding. It is admitted that there was a material deviation in the pilot house compass from the standard compass, and according to the statement of the first officer, no pains were taken to rectify the error or make allowance therefor. So palpable was the error made as to the exact situation of the vessel that during the investigation Capt. Freeman stated that the vessel seemed to be wholly out of its course from Cape Flattery. The testimony also conflicts seriously as to the order given by the respective officers, and the impression prevails that either their duties were not clearly defined, or little trouble was taken to enforce them. It is evident that the best of feeling didn't prevail aboard the ship. As a rule all the officers were unacquainted with the nature of the coast, and in one notable example, the man who was kept at the wheel for a period of four hours on a stretch signally failed to tell how the compass was boxed.

WEEKLY COLONIST.—An apology is due the up-country subscribers to this paper for the non-delivery of last week's issue, which was caused by an unusual amount of matter which detained the edition from going to press until it was impossible to put up subscribers' papers in time for the steamer. This is another of the many disadvantages the public suffer from in consequence of having the mail steamers leave at seven instead of eight o'clock.

The C. L. Taylor- Further Particulars of the Wreck.

PORT TOWNSEND, Feb. 24.—Funeral services were held in St. Paul's Episcopal church here to-day, in memory of Mrs. Bergman, who lost her life on the C. L. Taylor. The church was crowded with friends of the deceased. Mrs. Bergman leaves a mother in San Francisco, a sister in Nevada county, California, and another, Miss Patterson, in New Tacoma. Capt. Bergman has about recovered from the effects of the hardships he endured. His little girl, who is at the residence of Capt. John L. Butler in this city, is also getting stronger. The poor little thing, after the disaster, had to stay on the deck of the vessel for three days, with no covering but a rude shed built of boards. No water could be obtained the first day, but during the night dew fell, and a blanket spread on deck absorbed the moisture, which was wrung out, thus obtaining supply enough of water for the child. The next day rain fell, and a supply was caught in the boat. All the food obtainable was a sack of flour, from which pancakes were made. Nothing has been heard of the missing crew. The Wolcott has gone in search of them. When Mrs. Bergman was taken from the cabin a frightful gash was found on her arm, probably caused by the lumber striking her, and it is possible that the loss of blood from this cause helped her death.

FINEST STEAMERS IN THE WORLD.—W. H. Starbuck telegraphed the Oregonian from New York on the 23rd Feb., as follows: "You have made a mistake in reference to the price of the steel steamers for Puget Sound, in your paper of the 13th inst. It should be $300,000 each. Please correct it. They will be the finest steamers in the world of their class. We have also just contracted for a magnificent new iron steamship for the lower California route, to be ready in October."

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22—James Neary, a gaming hoodlum, broke a show window of a money broker's store on Kearney street this evening, and snatching a dummy roll of twenty dollar pieces, started and ran followed by a crowd of men. Reaching Montgomery street he turned and fired a shot at his pursuers, and after running two blocks further fired a second shot, when he was tripped up by a special officer and taken to jail. The shots went wide of the mark, and nobody was hurt.

The steamship Gaelic, which arrived today from Hongkong, encountered a cyclone in the China sea, and was knocked about severely, an immense wave striking her with such force as to bend the starboard plates of the iron house on the main deck. Two boats were carried away, and the iron rail on the side was badly damaged. The door of the captain's stateroom was literally wrenched from its hinges. She brought a large quantity of opium, seven packages of which are for British Columbia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26—W. H. Holte, merchant, committed suicide to-day. Cause: business troubles.

W. H. Fritz shot a barkeeper named Wodkin, of whom he was jealous, on account of his attentions to his wife, and then attempted suicide. The wounds are not serious in either case.

Capt Healy, of the U. S. steamer Corwin, and Major Blakely, of the life saving department, arrived at Empire city yesterday to investigate the conduct of the life saving station keeper at Cape Gregory, at the time of the loss of the steamer Tacoma.

MANITOBA.

As Seen by English Eyes.

According to a correspondent for the London Fancier, this is a terrible country to live in. What a startling picture some writers can make when they cut loose from any obligation to tell the truth. Read this: "Imagine such a picture as I have often seen—the glass down to seventy or eighty degrees below freezing; a frame house, (i. e., one through which every wind whistled); nothing to eat but a bit of salt pork, a few potatoes and bread; a smouldering stove filling the room with smoke; a pallid, starving wife and half a dozen miserable children huddling together for mutual warmth; a climate outside where none but the strongest dare show their faces for even ten seconds, and then only when wrapped up with every description of garment, or an occasional sheepskin; no vegetables during the long, long winter; nothing but one unvarying routine of starvation inside and out. Picture to yourself the obligation of feeding your cattle, sheep and pigs in the open air, always, or generally, in a bright sunshine, but a sun without power. And then an occasional "blizzard" will sweep across the country leaving a track of death in its wake for nothing lives when these snow storms come on; men, horses and cattle all succumb."—Winnipeg Sun.

DON'T DO IT.

HIGHLY SATISFACTORY.

Impure blood and low vitality are the great sources of most diseases for which Burdock Blood Bitters is the specific. S. Perrin, Druggist, of Lindsay, writes that Burdock Blood Bitters give more general satisfaction than any blood purifier in the market. (22)

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE!

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street Bloomsbury, London.
